

4G

The StairMaster 4G StepMill brings the legendary climbing experience to smaller spaces without compromising performance. Perfectly suited for hospitality and multi-housing fitness centers, it delivers the calorie-torching, glute-focused benefits StairMaster is known for in a compact, approachable design. With its low step-up height and intuitive interface, the 4G makes one of the most effective cardio workouts accessible to more users, all while delivering reliability that operators can count on.
